Unemployment Rate Drops to Single Digits in Starr County

Rio Grande City, Texas (October 24, 2017) — The Texas Workforce Commission released the September 2017 Labor Market and Employment reports and unemployment in Starr County has slid into single digits to a 9.7%.

Starr County has seen a significant decline for the past year. Last September's unemployment rate for the county was at 13.4%.

The trend is consistent with the rest of the Rio Grande Valley counties, which are also down to single-digit unemployment.
